4. Recent Trip to China by Mayor Mussatto – File: 1090-22

Submitted by: Councillor P.J. Bookham

Moved by Councillor Bookham, seconded by Councillor Fearnley

WHEREAS press coverage of the recent trip to China by Mayor Mussatto and six other Lower Mainland mayors paid for by a private company has caused confusion; and

WHEREAS there is no policy to guide such activities, notwithstanding the legal opinion provided by the City Solicitor;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT Mayor Mussatto provide a written report to Council stipulating the following and whatever other facts the Mayor deems relevant:

1. Was this a holiday, or a business trip?
2. Who did pay for the trip, be it a company, individual or association?
3. Was the proposed trip discussed with Council, prior to the Mayor accepting the invitation?
4. Was the trip discussed with Senior Staff – i.e. the City Clerk, the City Manager, the Director of Finance?
5. If the Mayor did seek advice from Senior Staff, what recommendations did they offer?
6. Did the Mayor seek legal advice prior to deciding to accept the invitation?

RESOLVED THAT a summary of the legal opinion of the City Solicitor be made public; and

RESOLVED THAT the Mayor provide a separate, detailed report on his activities and the benefit of the trip to the City of North Vancouver.

Mayor Mussatto responded to questions 1 through 6 and these were withdrawn from the motion by a friendly amendment.

Mr. Manchan Sonachansingh, President, Trinidad & Tobago Cultural Society of British Columbia, and Chair, Caribbean Days Festival.

Re: Caribbean Days Festival and Saturday Night Dance of July 28, 2007

– File: 4455-03-C7/1195-11-L2-02-04

Mr. Manchan Sonachansingh, President, Trinidad and Tobago Cultural Society of British Columbia and Chair, Caribbean Days Festival, congratulated the City of North Vancouver on its Centennial. Mr. Sonachansingh advised that the Society was holding a Centennial event showcasing Caribbean artists on June 14, 2007 at Capilano College Theatre and invited City Council to attend.

Mr. Sonachansingh then reviewed the background and history of the Caribbean Days Festival. He outlined the challenges, including financial, faced by the Society in holding the event. He advised that the Festival costs over $200,000 and that volunteer hours to plan the event exceed 10,000 hours.

He requested the City of North Vancouver play a more supportive role by increasing its financial input, assisting in the location of a seasonal home for festival production and continuing to encourage the business community to become more involved in the Festival.

Mr. Sonachansingh then responded to questions from members of Council.
