

New Library Fact Sheet

Location:	120 West 14 th Street, North Vancouver
Dates:	Ground breaking February 2007 Grand Opening September 20, 2008
Architect:	Diamond Schmitt (Toronto) in joint venture with CEI Architecture (Vancouver) Other Libraries: Richmond Hill Public Library Burnaby Public Library, Edmonds Branch Toronto Public Library, Maria Schulka Branch
Landscape Design:	Phillips, Farevaag, Smallemberg
Project Manager:	Turnbull Construction
Construction Management:	PCL Constructors Westcoast Inc.
Size:	36,000 Square Feet Old Library 13,900 square feet
Café:	850 Square Feet Commercial Contract with Brazza
Parking:	113 underground parking spaces Paid parking. First half hour free, 50 cents per half hour thereafter
Cost:	Total Project Costs	$36,233,500
	Library Construction (includes Parking/Plaza/Contingency)	$27,810,000
	Professional Fees	$3,550,000
	Collection Development	$1,100,000
	Furniture, Fittings, Equipment	$1,600,000
	Other	$2,173,500

Additional Funding:

Spirit Square Provincial Grant for Civic Plaza - $500,000
Canada-BC Municipal Rural Infrastructure Fund - $204,000 for 120 solar hot water panels for library roof

Special Features:The Media Room

An outstanding collection of DVDs, CDs and games. Viewing and listening stations allow for in library enjoyment.

The Terrace

An outdoor reading room with incredible views of the Lions Gate Bridge.

Children's Reading Garden

An outdoor reading room for children with an ouchless floor and fun seating.

The Room

Just for teens, this special room is equipped with study tables, game gear and a 52 inch TV.

The Café

Located on the main level to the left of the library entrance, the Brazza Café offers a variety of beverages and snacks. And yes you can bring them into the library.

RFID Technology:

Techlogic

- 9 bin sort system for check in
- Check out and payment stations
- Security system

Public Art:

Alan Storey Wilbur's Web - Library Interior

Nancy Chew, Jacqueline Metz Tree of Knowledge (donor recognition)
– Library Entrance on the Plaza

Marianne Nicholson – Spirit Square Public Art (to be named)

For more information contact:

Jane Watkins, Chief Librarian: 604.990.4226